September 30, 2004.

P.C.:

This writ petition is directed against the order dated 18th September 2003 passed by the Joint Director General of Foreign Trade. Admittedly this is an appealable order. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that his appeal may be considered by the concerned authority. Once the appeal is filed, the appellate authority would be under an obligation to consider the appeal. No further directions are necessary in that respect. This writ petition being devoid of any merit, is accordingly dismissed.
